

conference on “Transformation in the Role and Status of Women in Light of the Thought of Imam Khomeini (RA)”

Women's Affairs Office of the Institute for Compilation and Publication of Imam Khomeini's
Works (PBUH)

About the Conference:

This conference seeks, with a scientific, interdisciplinary, and future-oriented perspective, to explore the overlooked capacities of the Imam's thought in the field of women and to explain it in today's language for the country's scientific and executive system. It also strives, by employing an interdisciplinary approach and relying on data and analysis in various dimensions such as jurisprudential, sociological, political, legal, historical, artistic, and so on, to redefine and formulate the lasting and complex effects of Imam Khomeini's (RA) thoughts on the theoretical and practical realms related to women, considering the requirements of the time.

Necessities of the Conference:

1-Cultural–Social: Re-identifying the position of women in the Imam's thought to strengthen the cultural identity of society.

2- Scientific–Research: Creating an interdisciplinary space for re-reading the Imam's thought.

3-Legal–Political: Analyzing women's participation in the structure of the Islamic Republic.

4- Educational–Familial: Emphasis of the Imam on the role of women in the family and in raising the next generation.

5- International: Introducing the model of the Muslim woman to the world and confronting stereotypes.

Main Objectives:

- 1-A systematic rereading of Imam Khomeini's (RA) thoughts on women in Islamic, social, and political dimensions.
- 2-Analyzing the transformation of women's roles before and after the Islamic Revolution in the light of the Imam's thoughts.
- 3-Identifying the challenges and obstacles to the realization of the Imam's thought within cultural, legal, and social structures.
- 4-Presenting an indigenous-Islamic model for enhancing the status of Muslim women in contemporary society.

Strategic Objectives:

- 1-Explaining the theoretical foundations of the Imam's discourse on women, family, and social justice.
- 2-Evaluating the role of women after the Revolution in scientific, social, and cultural domains.
- 3-Strengthening the discourse of the Muslim woman in the global arena and creating a platform for intercultural dialogue.
- 4-Providing documented responses to media-based misconceptions regarding the status of women in Iran.
- 5-Proposing policies based on the Imam's thought for gender justice and enhancing women's participation.
- 6-Institutionalizing strategic studies in the field of women and Islamic thought.

National and International Objectives:

1. Introducing the discourse on women in the Imam's thought.
2. Facilitating transnational scientific and research collaborations.
3. Comparative explanation of the status of women in Islam.
4. Promoting Iran's scientific and cultural diplomacy.
5. Promoting the international discourse on religious gender justice.
6. Enhancing global understanding of the experience of the Iranian Muslim woman.
7. Explaining the Imam's thought on women for policymakers.
8. Raising public and elite awareness about women's rights in the Islamic–Iranian culture.
9. Supporting indigenous research in the field of women.
10. Strengthening women's participation in cultural and social management.
11. Establishing a network of scientific cooperation among regional countries on women
